From: EfiDate of interrogation: June 6, 2002Place of interrogation: Room 8Start time: 8:15 a.m.Memorandum from interrogation of Nasser Jamal Nasser Shawish

The subject was told that according to information that is in our possession, he had omitted many details in his confession concerning his activities. The subject asked for a short time to write outlines pertaining to the activity about which he had not talked. After that, he stated the following:

Abu Iad a-Shama'a, 45 years of age, an employee of the General Intelligence in Ramallah, in the office of Tawfik Tirawi. He tried to recruit Mohamed Hashaika for a suicide attack, did not agree to his suggestion, and later agreed to the suggestion of Abdel Karim Aweis to carry out a suicide attack.

About two weeks ago, Darwish a Duhader, 22, from Ramallah, an operative in the al-Aqsa Martyrs [Brigades], called and informed the subject that he had carried out a shooting attack against an Israeli automobile and that he had heard in the news that an Israeli had been killed in the Ramallah area. the subject that Mohamed Abu Tabiah was one of theirs and could be trusted.

The subject met Mohamed Abu Tabiah again later that day. They were asked whether they had high explosives and improvised explosive devices, because they were in short supply in Nablus, and he responded that they did have some. He asked the subject to wait until the evening, at which time he would transfer to the subject improvised explosive devices / high explosives. The subject stated that he could not wait, as he wished to return to Nablus. Mohamed was able to update the subject.

The subject went to the above mentioned Mohamed Abu Rub and stated that he might ask him to go via Mohamed Abu Tabiah, as he had high explosives – the latter agreed.
